“Teachers must refrain from politics” -NU Vice-Chancellor

Jan 27, 2025: Teachers must refrain from politics. This is imperative to enhance the quality of education. It is seen that some members of the college governing bodies are bowing down before undue offers of the college authorities. This was stated by National University (NU) Vice-chancellor (VC) Prof. Dr. ASM Amanullah while speaking as the Chief Guest at a function organised by Dhaka Commerce College in the city today. He said steps are being made to check adopting unfair means in the exams.

Later, the NUVC on another occasion gave a cheque assistance of Tk. 3 lac to the family of Meherunesa of Hazrat Shah Ali Girls' College who was killed during the July-August uprising. Dr. Prof. Amanullah also inaugurated a library in the name of martyr Meherunnesa.
